Innovation you can build on™ pollution protection

Offer genuine protection for a safer life

For years, external aggressions (UV, cigarette smoke, harmful gases, free radicals, urban pollution, heavy metals, ...) have attacked us.

Through the media, people are becoming more aware and conscious of these environmental dangers.

Hand, body and hair care are becoming a regular part of our daily grooming routine. For this reason, there is a growing market demand for Anti-Pollution Care.

Bring added value to your products by incorporating Sederma's active ingredients into your anti-pollution care products.

OSMOPUR™

Protecting complex against smoke and heavy metals.

DERMOSOME™

Reinforcement of cell cohesion to fight against external aggressions.

BACOCALMINE™

Free radical scavenger, protects from daily aggressions and inflammation.

HELIOGENOL™

Protects against free radical damage on dyed and natural hair.

VENUCEANE™

Autoactivated protection against free radicals, skin integrity from deep sea.

INTEGRISYME™

Protection of cutaneous enzyme integrity.
